

Plaque Unveiled at St. Andrews West Catholic Church August 31, 2024, St. Andrews West ON By Darlene Fawcett, UE

A Loyalist plaque was unveiled in the cemetery across from St. Andrews West Catholic Church, in South Stormont on Saturday, August 31.

This represents the fourth plaque being placed by St. Lawrence Branch UELAC at cemeteries where United Empire Loyalists are buried.

The plaque was unveiled by member of the Branch, Michael Eamer CD, UE, with Don McIntosh of the Historical Society providing the welcoming remarks.

Father Grotelaars blessed the plaque designating the cemetery as a burial place of some of the first settlers in the area.
