Sharing Knowledge and Skills Series July 2025

The Berry Teachings

July 5, 2025 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Presenter: Tekataronkotha - Eartha - a Haudenosaunee Grandmother

To many Indigenous cultures, the berry plants offer us much knowledge of how to walk softly on Mother Earth and amongst one another. Listen to the wisdom of the Berries as you make a strawberry pin and taste traditional strawberry drink.

Fee: $11.00 per person

Whispers in the Halls

July 12, 2025 11:00 AM, 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM

Presenter: Jake Breadman, PhD Candidate, Faculty of History, Queen's University

Join Jake, Parks Canada heritage interpreter, to hear stories about the many families that lived at Bellevue House from 1841 to 1964. Discover how these civic-minded Kingstonians - merchants, lawyers, military officers, scientists, and more - shaped and reflected Canada's broader history.

Fee: $7.50 per person

A Country Beyond the Great Water

Indigenous Travellers to France in the 17th & 18th Centuries

July 19, 2025 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Presenter: Dr. S. Berthelette, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, Queen's University

Dr. Scott Berthelette, Associate Professor of History, Queen's University, will share stories from his work focusing on Euro-Indigenous Relations, the early modern Atlantic World, and Indigenous North America.

Fee: $7.50 per person
